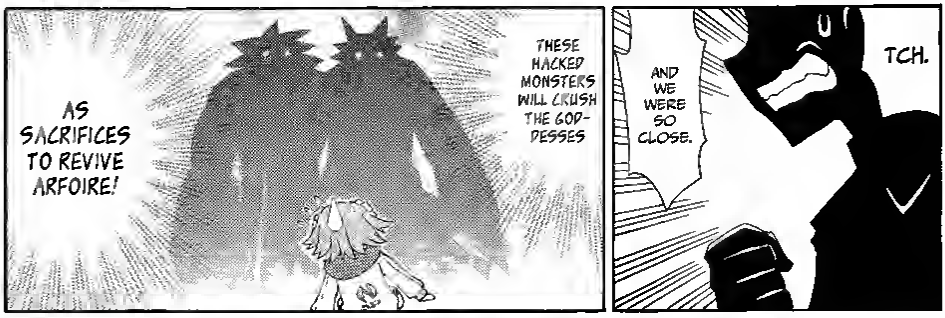
So thickheaded!
NEPTUNE! BEHIND YOU!



AS SACRIFICES TO REVIVE ARFOIRE!
THESE HACKED MONSTERS WILL CRUSH THE GODDESSES
AND WE WERE SO CLOSE.

OOOH A WISE GUY, HUH? FINE...

IF YOU COME OUT AND SAY YOU'RE SORRY, I'LL FORGIVE YOU!

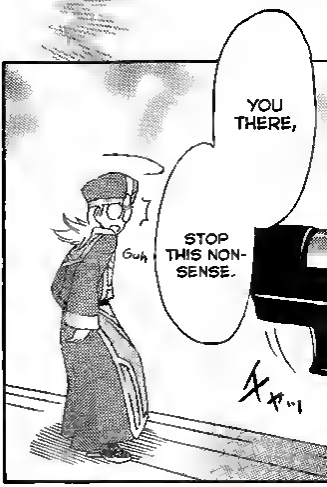
IT WAS YOU, HUH...



YOU THERE,

SHE EVEN MADE ORIGINAL GOODS!
SHE WAS VERY EFFICIENT WITH HER PUNISHMENTS!
N-NO! IT WAS LOVE BETWEEN A TEACHER AND STUDENT! LOOK!
BUT YOU WERE JUST STALKING HER?
YOU SAY IT WAS WORK..

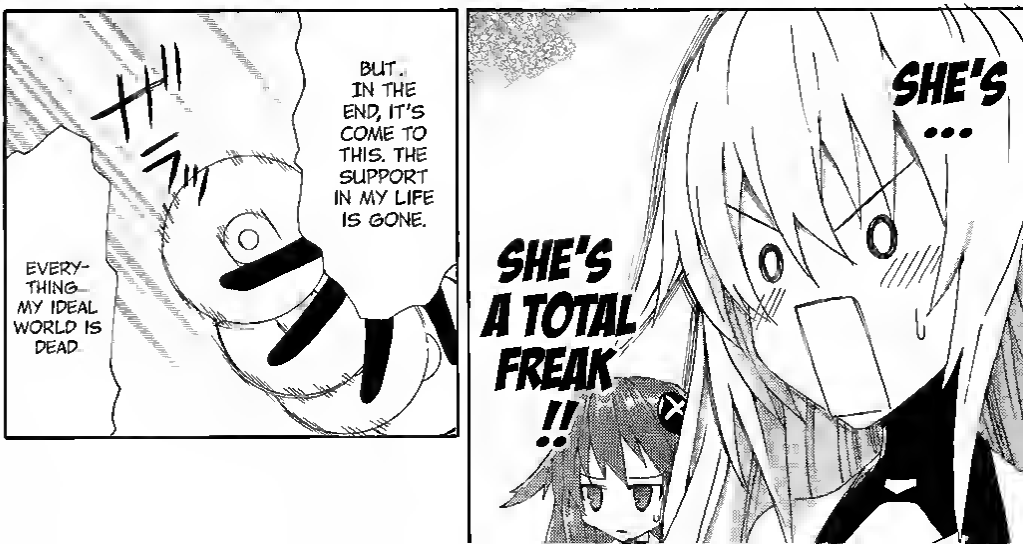
SHE WOULD REPEATEDLY YELL, "USELESS TRASH", BUT THAT WAS JUST HER WAY OF SHOWING AFFECTION...
It making me blush



EVERY-THING— MY IDEAL WORLD IS DEAD

The Job of a Goddess

The work schedules of Gamindustri's leaders has been released to the public! Additionally, the supporting characters behind the scenes of Gamindustri's development are introduced!!

ネプテューヌ

✖ NEPTUNE

She's bright, cheerful, and charismatic enough to charm everyone around her... But she has zero sense of responsibility as a goddess.

She skips out on public duties and issues, and when she goes out on monster extermination quests, there are unexplainable instances of those same monsters increasing in number. Her failures are never ending.

✖ The Land She Protects

Lond of Purple Progress
Planeptune

With its extremely state of the art arcades, doujin shops, so on so forth, Planeptune is referred to as the forefront of the hobby industry. With their solid state technology, many businesses have come in and modernized retro tools and machines such as jukeboxes, and sold them to the public. Without the divine protection of a goddess, monsters attacked very frequently. However, with Neptune's revivol, there is peace and order, making Planeptune an excellent nation.

✖ A Day in the Life of Neptune

Neptune lacks work ethic. She was scheduled to do official business on this day, but instead she went to other nations to pla— perform some "inspechans".

During the Lastation brain-washing incident Neptune unexpectedly had to help Noire fight the hacker when she just came to play.

A WORD FROM HISTOIRE

Although she ends up saving Gamindustri, Neptune should take her job a bit more seriously.

TRY HARDER

ノワール

✖ NOIRE

With her hard work and strong will, Noire has poured her heart and soul into Lastation's development. One could say that she is the ideal goddess.

There are times where she works too hard so as not to lose to the others (especially Neptune), but even that is a charm point.

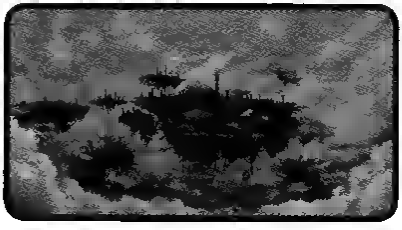
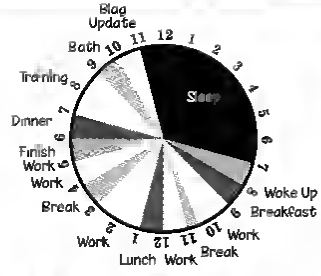
The Land of Black Regality
Lastation

Heavy industry has always been this continent's chief industry, with factories as far as the eye can see. Compared to Planeptune, they're not as developed. But as a result, they work hard and put out new technology almost daily. Monsters inhabit the small, isolated islands around the continent.



A Day in the Life of Naire

An extremely hard working honor student-type. In addition to her official business, she studies and trains without fail. An occasional break helps, too.



A WORD FROM HISTOIRE

True excellence! Her cosplay is very cute, too! Keep working hard toward Gamindustri's development!!

✖ BLANC

A girl of few words who can do whatever she sets her mind to, Blanc is a level-headed goddess. Reading is her hobby and she writes novels, but they don't sell very well.

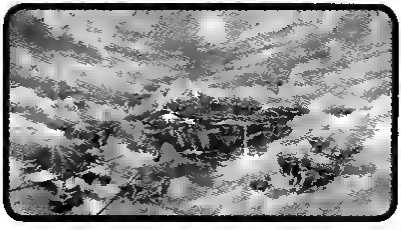
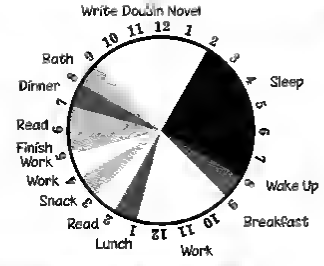
They also find stimulation in puzzle games. A giant monster has risen in recent years, but the goddesses have managed to suppress it



✖ A Day in the Life of Blanc

She is generally diligent with her official work, but she'll zealously write all through the night and then oversleep



She also has sales experience with doujin novels. She vigilantly keeps her eyes on the writing grand prize, but rarely does she even make it halfway to her goal

A WORD FROM HISTOIRE

A guild member who also saves the world with Neptune. She has the ability to calmly take action, and even now still frequently travels the world in solitude. She joined the guild due to being labeled a heretic for worshipping Green Heart.

What's the guild?

It is a group of people who worship a goddess from the nation they aren't native to. They are labeled as dangerous by other nations, but they're free to worship as they please. They are treated as heretics, but their belief in their goddesses is genuine.
